

Chris Faith (Charlie et al.)

Chris is pleased to return to Act II, having co-starred with Mr. Braithwaite once before in Good Evening and later performing in Rodgers' Romance. Chris has appeared Off-Broadway in The Secret Garden and Like It Is at the York Theatre. He is a three-time Barrymore Award nominee and co-hosted the awards ceremony last year. Regionally, he was a part of the original cast of Professional Skepticism at the Wellfleet Harbor Actors Theatre, which was featured in American Theatre magazine and published in Smith and Kraus' Best Plays of 2002. Chris also performed opposite Broadway star Linda Eder in the new musical, The Seduction of Sheila Valentine, directed by Vince Marini, music by Jack Murphy, which is still in the works for a Broadway run. Locally, he has performed at the Wilma, the Arden, 1812 Productions, Luna Theatre (voted Best Actor Grace 2007-08 season by Philadelphia Weekly), Pennsylvania Shakespeare Festival, Bristol Riverside Theatre, Mum Puppettheatre and will appear this winter in Cinderella for the People's Light and Theatre Company. Many thanks to Tony, Bud, Steve, and Bill for this opportunity!
