

Interviews with the Author of 'Respect'

{youtube}Uf0N93XCLAo{/youtube}

A compilation of interviews and clips of Dorothy Marcic, author of RESPECT: A MUSICAL JOURNEY OF WOMEN and the accompanying book. Dorothy will be attending the two talkback Preview performances of RESPECT, on May 5 and 6!

Professor Dorothy Marcic is on faculty at Vanderbilt University, in the department of Leadership and Organizations, Peabody College. She also serves as Director of Graduate Programs in Human Resource Development at Vanderbilt. A recent Fulbright scholar at the University of Economics-Prague, where she taught MBA students and practicing managers, her consulting practice has grown to include multinationals and governmental agencies in the Czech Republic. In addition to Organizational Behavior: Experiences and Cases, she is the author of several other books, including Organizational Behavior and Management International, Women and Men in Organizations, and Managing with the Wisdom of Love: Uncovering Virtue in People and Organizations.