

Kimberly Reilly

Marketing & Development Director

KIMBERLY REILLY joined the staff at Act II Playhouse in January of 2010. She brings with her several years of experience in non-profit arts management & production, having worked previously with Villanova Theatre, Theatre Horizon, and The Devon Theater. In 2010, Kimberly was honored alongside Matt Silva with a nomination for "Best Direction of a Musical" by the Barrymore Awards for Excellence in Theatre (for the duo's re-imagined production of Joseph & the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat). Kimberly earned her Master's Degree in Theatre from Villanova University in May of 2009. While at Villanova, Kimberly focused her course of study on non-profit arts leadership, marketing, development & public relations. Kimberly also received a dual B.A. from Villanova in Honors Interdisciplinary Studies and Philosophy, earning Minors in Spanish and Sociology and a Concentration in Peace & Justice Studies. Kimberly is thrilled to have the opportunity to do what she loves at Act II while helping to propagate a love for the performing arts in and around Philadelphia. Contact Kim
