

The Reluctant Optimist

conceived and performed by Mary Martello

Jan 12 - 23, 2011

Is your glass half full? Half empty? Or would you rather just trade it in for someone else's? Four-time Barrymore Award winner Mary Martello explores the elation and disappointment that come with being a cockeyed optimist in the modern world, using music by some well-known (and possibly new to your ears) composers such as Rodgers and Hammerstein, Cole Porter, George and Ira Gershwin, and Noel Coward.

Eric Ebbenga will accompany Mary on the piano.

An unforgettable evening of music and memories!
