

Magnetic North

by William Donnelly

Directed by Bud Martin

Previews Oct. 21-23, Oct. 24 – Nov. 16, 2008

In this new play, a young husband meets a woman from his past during a period of crisis in his marriage, bringing half-forgotten urges and uncertain intentions suddenly to the surface. Between the lure of the past and the need for connection, four very real people struggle to make sense of mixed signals and how much truth they need, or want, to hear. Winner of the 2006 Clauder Competition for New England Playwrights, Magnetic North is a charged tale that explores the shadowy border between intimacy and temptation—told with warmth, humor, and startling candor.

- Starring Sarah Shahinian*, Brad Heikes*, Christie Parker*, and Paul Felder
- Ticket prices: $20 for previews, $25 for weekdays, $30 for weekends (Friday-Sunday)
- Running time: 75 minutes with no intermission
- Montgomery Newspapers: 'Magnetic North' is a mesmerizing exploration of intimacy
- Clark Groome: Go North, young man (and woman), to Ambler theater
- Inquirer Review: Fine Acting Propels Play to a New Level
- Magnetic North Featured on Playbill.com!
- Show Supporter: StockTrans of Ardmore, PA

Scheduled Performances
Buy Tickets

* Ms. Shahinian, Mr. Heikes, and Ms. Parker are members of Actors’ Equity Association (AEA), the Union of Professional Actors and Stage Managers in the United States.